

43pl is the international consortium of SMEs in the CRC for Spatial Information

Established in 1999, Spatial Vision is a leading specialist in information and spatial technologies. We have significant experience delivering innovative products and tailored solutions.

Services

Our services include

- Consulting – to make informed decisions
- Application development – integrating knowledge
- GIS solutions – for business aware mapping
- Mobile apps – doing business wherever you are
- Cartography – that communicates
- Spatial analysis & visualisation – that enhances understanding
- Tailoring spatial data – from data to information
- GIS training – to make a difference

Market Sectors

Spatial Vision provides creative sustainable solutions for

- Natural resource management – including marine and terrestrial biodiversity, water, forests, fisheries, agriculture and minerals
- Emergency management – informing planning, prevention, response and recovery
- Government policy and planning – supporting peri-urban planning, service delivery, community facilities planning and evidence-based decision making

Product / Service Examples

Mapscape provides high quality, authoritative, pre-tiled topographic map imagery at multiple zoom scales.

Mapscape is available for web, mobile and desktop use.

www.mapscape.com.au

Product / Service Examples cont

www.checksite.com.au

Setting the industry standard for Phase 1 Environmental Risk Assessments.

- Complete professional reports compiled from the best available current information.
- One-stop-shop for authoritative property specific information on environmental risks.
- Timely and efficient. Quick turnaround for reports and urgent service options.

The recipient of four industry awards, CheckSite is setting the industry standard for Phase 1 Environmental Risk Assessments.

Company website

www.spatialvision.com.au

Spatial Vision provides range of professional services:

- Consulting – to make informed decisions
- Application development – integrating knowledge
- GIS solutions – for business aware mapping
- Mobile apps – doing business wherever you are
- Cartography – that communicates
- Spatial analysis & visualisation – that enhance understanding
- Tailoring spatial data – from data to information
- GIS training – to make a difference

Year after year our innovative solutions receive industry recognition:

- In 2012, Spatial Vision received Victorian iAwards for its CheckSite service in two categories: 1) Industrial Application and 2) e-Government. CheckSite also received the Victorian Spatial Excellence Awards for 1) Spatial Enablement and 2) the Government Award for Spatial Excellence.
- In 2012 Spatial Vision's Mapscape product received an award from the International Map Trade Association (IMTA) for Best Digital Mapping Product in the Asia Pacific Region.
- In 2011, Spatial Vision in collaboration with the Logan Beaudesert Health Coalition and Griffith University won the Research and Innovation category at the Queensland Spatial Excellence Awards for the 'Health Decision Support System' project.
- In 2010, Spatial Vision in collaboration with Department of Health Western Australia, Landgate, Curtin University through the Cooperative Research Centre for Spatial Information won the Spatially Enabling Government category at the Asia Pacific Spatial Excellence Awards for the 'HealthTracks – Spatially Enabling Health Intelligence' project.
- In 2009, Spatial Vision's Visualisation of Groundwater Management Units project won the Spatially Enabling Government category at the Asia Pacific Spatial Excellence Awards. Working closely with the Groundwater and Licensing division of Department of Sustainability & Environment, Spatial Vision developed a web-based platform for planners and policy makers to visualise GMUs in 3D and access related management information.
- In 2008 Spatial Vision won the Spatially Enabling Government category at the Victorian Spatial Excellence Awards for the design and development of the new national biosecurity application: BioSIRT (Bio-security, Surveillance, Incident Response and Tracing)- undertaken for the Primary Industries Ministerial Council with the full support of all States, Territories and the Commonwealth.
- In 2007, Spatial Vision's consulting services won the Spatial Strategy Category of the Victorian Spatial Excellence Awards for the Defining a National Standard for Emergency Management Symbology - the Australasian All Hazards Symbology Project undertaken for the Inter-Governmental Committee for Spatial Management.
- In addition, in 2007, in the People and Community Category at the Victorian Spatial Excellence Awards, Spatial Vision and the Victorian Office of the Emergency Service Commissioner won an award for the Wildfire Asset Identification and Consequence of Loss Evaluation Project.
- In 2006, Spatial Vision in partnership with the Department of Sustainability & Environment and the Country Fire Authority won the People and Community Australian and Pacific Spatial Excellence Award for the new Vicmap Books.